God is silent . So Saul rationalizes

Merrill F. Unger, Biblical Demonology, p 148, Scripture Press, Wheaton Illin. 1952 This episode of Saul's visit to the "spiritistic medium at Endor is not only the most prominent and detailed case of necromancy in Scripture, but it stands unique and unparalleled, as not only a glaring expose' of the fraudulence of spiritism, but also as God's unequivocal condemnation of all traffic in occultism, and his sure punishment of all who break his divinely ordained laws in having recourse to it.

Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit —a woman controlling, mistress of, a divining demon.

Seem odd-a man who has expelled all witches out of the land of Israel and has condemned them as being dangerous would now turn to a witch for counsel?

Questions:

- Did Saul know it was wrong to seek out a witch?
- Why do it?
- Why does a child of God today knowingly set out to disobey God when he knows it will destroy his life?

So What?

We choose to disobey God and God's principles because we feel it is necessary.

We rationalize based on our necessity.

This is what the flesh always does--takes present situation and makes it look like crisis.

Then makes it necessary.

Then causes person to rationalize based on immediate.

Causes a person to take eyes off permanent and put them on immediate.

Before person realizes what doing actually sacrifices permanent on altar of immediate.
